- (2) Every traditional authority must supply the municipal manager with the name, address and other particulars of the traditional leader identified in terms of section 81(2) of the Structures Act who will represent that traditional authority in the council within fourteen days after the municipal manager requested those particulars.
- (3) The municipal manager may deliver a notice contemplated in rule 10 or 11 to a person that appears to be over the age of sixteen at the address supplied in terms of sub-rule (1).
- (4) Non-receipt of any official communication or notice sent to an address referred to in sub-rule (1) or delivered in terms of sub-rule (2)- (a) does not affect the validity of any meeting or proceedings of the council or its committees and (b) is not sufficient reason to be absent from the meeting concerned without leave of absence.

Part 3: Attendance of meetings and hearings

Rule 13

Leave of absence

- (1) Applications for leave of absence from any council or committee meeting must be submitted to the Speaker or the chairperson in writing and signed by the member applying for leave.
- (2) All applications for leave must be submitted at least 12 hours in exceptional circumstances before the starting time of the meeting (and 48 hours in ordinary circumstances).
- (3) The Speaker or chairperson shall grant leave at his or her discretion, and the Speaker is at liberty to reject such application for leave of absence.
- (4) Leave will be deemed to have been granted if a councillor has been delegated to attend a meeting or engagement on behalf of the council.
- (5) A councillor or traditional leader-
 - (a) who fails to apply in terms of sub-rule (1) and is absent from a meeting or hearing he or she is required to attend; or
 - (b) whose application for leave of absence has been refused and is absent from the meeting or hearing he or she is required to attend; or
 - (c) whose application for leave of absence had been refused and who does not appeal in terms of rule 14; or
 - (d) whose appeal had been turned down; or
 - (e) who did not sign the attendance register contemplated in rule 17 is deemed absent without leave from the meeting concerned.
- (6) A councillor contemplated in sub-rule (6) must pay to the council a fine equal to 10 per cent of that councillor's monthly salary, which fine must be deducted from the first next payment due to the councillor by the municipality unless that councillor had paid the fine in cash before such payment is made. A fine in terms of this sub-rule escalates at a rate of 5 per cent for every subsequent absence without leave. The municipal manager must inform the councillor concerned in writing of the imposition of such fine.
- (7) The municipal manager must keep a record of all cases in terms of sub-rule (5) and must submit a written report thereon to the speaker at least once during every three month period.

Appeal against refusal of applications for leave of absence

- 14(1) A councillor and a traditional leader whose application for leave of absence had been refused in terms of rule 13(3) may appeal against the refusal. Such an appeal must be-
- (a) in writing; and
 - (b) lodged with the municipal manager
- within fourteen days after the date of the decision, provided that the council or the committee who must consider the appeal may condone the late submission of an appeal in exceptional circumstances.
- (2) The council considers an appeal in terms of sub-rule (1) in the case of absence from-
- (a) a council meeting or a public meeting or hearing; or
 - (b) an executive or mayoral committee meeting; or
 - (c) any committee if the municipality is a municipality with a plenary executive system, as the case may be. In all other cases the executive committee or the executive mayor considers the appeal.
- (3) A decision with regard to an appeal in terms of sub-rule (1) is final.

Removal of a councillor from office for absence from meetings without leave

- 15(1) Whenever a report submitted to the speaker in terms of rule 13(7) identifies a-
- (a) councillor that had been absent from three or more consecutive council meetings or three or more consecutive committee meetings which that councillor was required to attend; or
 - (b) a traditional leader had been absent from three or more council meetings that he or she was required to attend, the speaker must in writing report the matter to the council at the first ordinary council meeting next ensuing.

The speaker must, in the case of a traditional leader, also report the matter in writing to the traditional authority whom that traditional leader represents.

- (2) The council must consider the report of the speaker in terms of sub-rule (1) and must give the councillor or traditional leader concerned an opportunity to state his or her case. As soon as a councillor or traditional leader has stated his or her case, he or she must leave the meeting whilst the council considers the matter.
- (3) If, after consideration of the matter, the council is of the opinion that the councillor was absent without a good reason, the municipal manager must in writing request the MEC to remove the councillor from the council. If the council finds that the reason for the absence from any of the meetings was a good reason, the council may issue a formal warning to the councillor or traditional leader and determine the period during which the warning will be valid.
- (4) The councillor ceases to be a councillor on the date that the MEC informs the municipal manager that the councillor had been removed from office.
- (5) The removal of a councillor from office or a warning does not exempt that councillor from paying any fine in terms of rule 13(6).

Who may attend meetings

- 16(1) Until the council or a committee closes a meeting, a meeting may be attended by members of the public, employees of the council and the media, provided that a public meeting of voters or a constituency meeting or a public hearing may not be closed. An employee of the council may only attend a council or committee meeting which is held during his or her ordinary working hours with the express prior approval of his or her departmental head.
- (2) Every councillor and traditional leader must, from the time stipulated in the notice convening the meeting, attend every meeting of the council and every public meeting of voters and public hearing and remain in attendance at such meeting or hearing unless leave of absence had been granted to him or her or he or she must leave a meeting or hearing in terms of the code of conduct.
- (3) Every member of a committee must, from the time stipulated in the notice convening the meeting, attend every meeting of the committee of which he or she is a member and remain in attendance at such a meeting unless leave of absence had been granted to him or her or he or she must leave the meeting in terms of the code of conduct.
- (4) The speaker, mayor and executive mayor, as the case may be, may by virtue of their offices, attend and participate in any committee meeting, provided that-
 - (a) the speaker may not vote on any matter at a committee meeting;
 - (b) the mayor may only vote at an executive committee meeting;
 - (c) the executive mayor may only vote at a mayoral committee meeting.
- (5) Any councillor who is not a member of a committee or a traditional leader may only attend a meeting of a committee with the express prior permission of the chairperson of that committee, which permission may not be unreasonably withheld.
- (6) The speaker or the chairperson of a committee, as the case may be, may invite any person to attend a meeting of the council or that committee, as the case may be.
- (7) The municipal manager and departmental heads of the municipality must attend public meetings of voters, public hearings, council and committee meetings, provided that the chairperson of a committee may after consultation with the municipal manager exempt the municipal manager or any departmental head from attending any meeting of the committee concerned or, if he or she is not exempted, grant leave of absence to him or her from any meeting of that committee.

Attendance register

- 17(1) The Municipal Manager must supply an appropriate attendance register at every meeting and hearing.
- (2) Every councillor and traditional leader who is present at a meeting or hearing must sign the attendance register.
- (3) Any councillor or traditional leader who had been present at a meeting or hearing but who failed to sign the attendance register, is deemed absent without leave from the meeting concerned.

Part 4: Documents to be available at meetings

 - (h) submit every motion and proposal made and seconded to the vote;
 - (i) declare the result of any vote in terms of paragraph (h); and
 - (j) instruct any member of the public or media and any employee of the council who may be present at a meeting to leave the meeting when the meeting resolved to close any part of its session and not to return to it until the meeting continues in public.
- (2) The chairperson's ruling with regard to a motion, proposal or question is final. When a ruling is made, the chairperson must state the grounds for the ruling.
- (3) The chairperson's interpretation of the rules and orders or a ruling as to procedure is final, provided that-
- (a) if the interpretation or ruling is contested or called into question, the chairperson must, at the first meeting next ensuing, provide a written interpretation or ruling;
 - (b) a councillor may request that the chairperson provide a written interpretation or ruling at the first meeting next ensuing;
 - (c) the council or committee, as the case may be, may upon receipt of such written interpretation or ruling, consider the matter and amend or substitute the interpretation of the chairperson.
- (4) The chairperson may, in performing his or her functions and powers-
- (a) consult with the municipal manager;
 - (b) direct any person who is speaking to discontinue his or her speech or to desist from breaching the order or to discontinue making interjections;
 - (c) direct any person to apologise for or to apologise for and withdraw any allegation, statement or remark if it is unbecoming, unnecessarily tactless, incriminating, disparaging, improper, racist or sexist or inciting violence or injures or impairs the dignity or honour of a councillor or employee of the municipality;

- (d) direct any person who persist in disregarding the chair or who obstructs the business at a meeting, to retire from the meeting; and (e) instruct any person to leave a meeting if the meeting resolve to close its session or any part of it.
- (5) If a person refuses to retire from a meeting or hearing after having been directed in terms of sub-rule (4)(d) or (e), the chairperson may direct an employee of the municipality present at the meeting to remove that person or cause his or her removal and to take steps to prevent that person from returning to the meeting or hearing.
- (6) The chairperson may change the order of business at the meeting despite any provisions to the contrary herein.
- (7) The chairperson at a council meeting where an adequate number of councillors are present to decide a question relating to the removal of a political office-bearer from municipality may not, notwithstanding any rule to the contrary in these Rules and Orders, adjourn that meeting unless a majority of the councillors present at such a meeting vote in favour of a proposal that the meeting be adjourned.
- (8) The chairperson at a meeting of the council or committee may instruct any person present at such meeting who –
- (a) is in possession of a mobile phone that rings during such meeting; or who brings to or eats during a meeting any food, fruit, biscuits or other refreshments (except bottled water and cold drinks) to -
 - (i) leave such meeting and not return to it; or
 - (ii) to surrender such phone or food fruit, biscuits or other refreshments to a person designated by the presiding officer and to collect it from that person when she or he leaves the meeting or when the meeting adjourns.
- (9) The chairperson be allowed to institute any action he/she might deem fit to ensure proper order prevails at any Council meeting.
- (10) The speaker or chairperson of a municipal council-

 - (v) is calculated to or may threaten or affect a fundamental right of any person.
- (2) A traditional leader may not second or vote on any motion, proposal or question before a meeting.
- (3) Subject to sub-rule (6) a councillor, the municipal manager and a departmental head attending a meeting of the council or a committee, shall switch off any mobile phone she or he may have in her or his possession as soon as she or he enters the venue of the meeting and keep it switched off until such time as -
- (a) she or he leaves the meeting; or
 - (b) the meeting adjourns.
- (4) Subject to sub-rule (6) a councillor or an employee of the council attending a meeting shall –
- (a) surrender any mobile phone that she or he has in her or his possession when attending the relevant meeting and which rings, to a person determined by the person presiding at the time at the meeting and collect same from the person to whom she or he has submitted it after the conclusion of the meeting or when she or he leaves the meeting; or
 - (b) leave the meeting at the instruction of the person presiding at the time at the meeting if a mobile phone which is in her or his possession rings during the meeting.

- (5) A person who is instructed to leave a meeting in terms of sub-rule (4)(b) shall be deemed to be absent without leave from the meeting concerned for the period from which she or he leaves the meeting until such time as the meeting adjourns.
- (6) Sub-rule (4) does not apply in respect of a councillor that is a medical practitioner or a emergency medical service worker, provided that -
 - (a) the councillor presiding at the meeting has granted permission to the councillor concerned that she or he need not switch a mobile phone in her or his possession off; and
 - (b) she or he, immediately when the phone rings, leaves the meeting.
- (7) The council or the committee during whose meeting a councillor is instructed to surrender her or his phone or to leave the meeting in terms of sub-rule (4) shall by resolution adopted at that meeting, impose a fine on such councillor, which fine shall be deducted from that councillor's pay at the earliest opportunity unless that councillor pays the fine in cash before it is deducted from her or his pay. The decision of the council or committee in regard to a fine in terms of this sub-rule is final.
- (8) The municipal manager shall institute disciplinary proceedings against an employee of the council which has been instructed to surrender her or his phone or to leave the meeting in terms of sub-rule (4).
- (9) No councillor or employee of the council attending a meeting of the council or a committee shall bring into the venue of the meeting, or eat, any food, fruit, biscuits or other refreshments (except bottled water and cold drinks) during the meeting unless - (a) such food, fruit, biscuits, or other refreshments are supplied and served by the municipality; or

Rule 31(A)

Conduct at meetings

- (1) The Speaker or the chairperson of the meeting in the event of a meeting other than a council meeting shall: a)
 - a) Maintain order during meetings;
 - b) Ensure compliance with the Code of Conduct for Councillors during meetings;
 - c) Ensure that meetings are conducted in accordance with the rules;
 - d) Ensure that members conduct themselves in a dignified and orderly manner during meetings;
 - e) Ensure that members of the public attending meetings are seated in areas designated for that purpose;
 - f) Ensure that members of the public attending meetings conduct themselves in an orderly manner and obey any ruling made by the Speaker or chairperson of the meeting;
 - g) Ensure that any councillor or member of the public refusing to comply with the ruling of the Speaker or chairperson leaves the meeting;
 - h) Ensure that the Whip of each political party represented in the municipal council as well as the Chief Whip of Council maintains discipline during any meeting.

Rule 31 (B)

Disorderly conduct of councillors and the duty of the chairperson

- 1) If at any meeting of the council or committee, a councillor conducts himself or herself in an improper fashion, behaves in an unseemly manner or persistently obstructs business to be carried out or challenges the ruling of the Speaker or chairperson on any point of order or declines to withdraw an expression when required to do so by the chairperson or indulges in tedious repetition or unbecoming language or commits any breach of these rules, the chairperson shall direct such councillor to conduct himself or herself properly and, if speaking, to discontinue his/her speech and resume his/her seat, as if he/she was standing.
 - 2) In the event of persistent disregard of the directions of the Speaker or chairperson, the Speaker or chairperson shall direct such councillor to retire from the venue where the meeting is being held for the remainder of the meeting, and shall, if necessary, cause him/her to be ejected therefrom.
 - 3) The Speaker or a chairperson may exclude from a meeting, for such period of time during the meeting as he/she may deem fit, any member who has so committed an act of misconduct or behaved in an unseemly manner or persistently obstructed the business of the meeting or disregarded the authority of the chairperson, provided that a formal process will be initiated after the conclusion of the meeting.
 - 4) Where a councillor refuses to retire or in the event of more than one councillor having to be ejected from the meeting, and such councillor/s refuse/s to leave the meeting, the Speaker shall request the Council Orderly to facilitate the removal of such councillor/s from the chamber. If this cannot be done orderly, the chairperson of a meeting may adjourn proceedings for a period not exceeding 15 minutes, in order for the relevant councillors to retire or to be ejected from the venue of the meeting. If, at the resumption of proceedings, the councillor/s have not left / been ejected, the meeting may be adjourned for another 10 minutes to address the situation. The chairperson may rule that after the second adjournment the meeting will re-convene at another venue and any councillor/s ordered to retire or so evicted or ordered to be evicted will be refused entry to the alternative venue. The Council Orderly of the council will ensure that such councillor/s do/es not enter such an alternative venue.

32 DRESS CODE

(1) PRINCIPLES

- (a) Discretion in style of dress and behaviour is essential to the image and of the;
- (b) Councillors are expected to dress in a manner appropriate to their working environment and as bearers of public trust;
- (c) It would be expected that on occasions when councillors are meeting with customers, or external visitors from other organisations, or interviewing candidates, that they would dress in an appropriate conventional business-like manner;
- (d) Where appropriate, councillors should consult the speaker regarding any dress requirements specific to the performance of a duty of any nature.

(2) APPROPRIATE ATTIRE

(a) For the purpose of this policy, the following categories of dress have been identified, each of which are appropriate dress under certain circumstances:

- (i) Formal Attire – For men this would be a suit with tie. For women, dresses or suits with either formal skirts or formal pants. Appropriate footwear includes formal type of shoes with socks/stockings.
- (ii) Informal Attire – Slightly less formal than traditional formal attire. For men, this would be pants worn with/without a tie or pants worn with/without a jacket.

For women, this is a skirt or pants with a dressy blouse and/or sweater, or other type of top with a jacket. Footwear should be selected according to the type of work performed, keeping safety, comfort and professional appearance in mind.

Socks/stockings are not required for women. Sport shoes and hats are not permitted. The intent of informal attire is to ensure that personnel are dressed appropriately to meet with the public at a moment's notice.

- (iii) Casual Attire – A more casual dress, such as Khakis, Chinos, Jeans or Dockers style twill pants and any type of collared shirt or sweater (for men) or blouse, dressy tee, or sweater and dressy capris (for women). Footwear should be selected according to the type of work performed, keeping safety, comfort and professional appearance in mind. Socks/stockings are not required for women. Sport shoes and hats are not permitted.

(3) INAPPROPRIATE ATTIRE

(a) The following should be taken into consideration when defining what is regarded as inappropriate clothing for the workplace:

- (i) sport-related attire, including t-shirts/tops with slogans relating to football teams or other club crests, would not be appropriate or could be construed as being offensive/inflammatory slogans.
- (ii) pictures on t-shirts/tops containing nudity or foul language may be deemed sexually offensive, and would not be appropriate workplace attire.
- (iii) shorts (hot-pants/cut-off jeans/sports shorts are not acceptable; however tailored shorts to the knee could be deemed acceptable).
- (iv) crop tops, clothes made of see-through materials, and clothes that expose areas of the body usually covered in the workplace may be deemed sexually offensive, and would not be appropriate.
- (v) an observable and lack of underwear may be deemed sexually offensive and would not be appropriate.
- (vi) any articles of clothing or jewellery which may present a Health and Safety hazard for employees who are operating machinery, fire engines, etc.
- (vii) any wearing that depicts the pictures, symbols or messages of a political party would not be appropriate.

- (b) These restrictions are in place as some articles of clothing may be regarded as offensive to some employees and be regarded as discriminatory in terms of sex or sexual orientation, religious beliefs, racial or ethnic origins, or any other discriminatory grounds, or which may cause health and safety concerns.

(5) RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL DRESS

- (a) The MLM accepts that it is normal practice that the wearing of religious and cultural dress is permissible and must not be discouraged.
- (b) The exception to this protocol is where health, safety and welfare will be compromised by the wearing of such dress and/or where this is likely to enhance the risk to other persons.
- (c) The following points should be borne in mind:
 - (i) some religions and cultures require certain mode of dress; for example, the wearing of compulsory items such as bangles made of animal hides, where necessary.

- (ii) no specific formalities exist regarding female or male religious and cultural dress code if so required to observe religious practices;

(6) GUIDELINES

- (a) The following guideline should be used to determine the dress code appropriate to the work area, function or event:
 - (i) Formal Attire or Informal Attire are appropriate and encouraged for councillors, particularly when attending council and council committees' meetings and other formal business engagements. Councillors may use Casual Attire on Fridays and/or other selected occasions as may be determined by the relevant authority (Speaker).
 - (ii) No political party regalia, attire or uniforms will be permitted to be worn by Councillors during council meetings and council committee meetings.

(7) BREACH OF POLICY

- (a) Councillors who consistently violate these guidelines may be dealt with in accordance with the duly adopted Standing Rules and Orders of the Council.

(7) EXCEPTIONS

- (a) A situation may arise where a national campaign is launched and require dressing in a particular style or form (e.g. Soccer Friday for the World Aids Day, Rugby Friday for the Heritage Day, etc). In such cases, councillors shall be allowed to dress up in support of the appropriate campaign only at the appropriate days.
- (b) For both men and women, clothing should have a good fit. Clothing should be pressed and in good condition, meaning that it has no holes, or dangling threads.
- (c) Other exceptions includes days such as the Casual Day, etc.
- (d) Any other exception, particularly in relation to culture, religion or national and/or municipal-led campaigns which may necessitate deviation from this policy shall be subject to the approval of the Speaker.

Person speaking to address the chairperson

33. A person addressing a meeting or hearing must address the chairperson of that meeting or hearing.

Councillor to stand while speaking

- 34(1) Unless otherwise directed by the chairperson of a meeting or hearing a councillor and traditional leader addressing a meeting or hearing must stand while speaking.
- (2) If a councillor or traditional leader who is not speaking raises his or her hand while another councillor is speaking on a point of order or to make a proposal and the chairperson addresses such councillor or traditional leader, the councillor or traditional leader who speaks must sit down (if he or she stood) and remain silent until the chairperson has made a ruling on the point of order or the proposal.

Duration and reading of speeches

- 35(1) Unless expressly otherwise determined in these rules and orders, a councillor and traditional leader may not speak longer than ten minutes on any matter.
- (2) Except when a councillor or traditional leader is -
- (a) delivering the speaker's, mayoral or executive mayor's report or
 - (b) presenting the draft budget he or she may not read a speech, but may refresh his or her memory by referring to notes.

Councillor to speak only once

- 36(1) Unless expressly otherwise determined in these rules and orders, a councillor or traditional leader may speak only once on a matter, unless the presiding officer direct otherwise.
- (2) The introducer of a motion or proposal may reply in conclusion of the debate but must confine his or her reply to answering to previous speakers.
- (3) The council may allow the mayor or the executive mayor or the chairperson of a section 79 committee if the municipality has a plenary executive system, as the case may be, to make an explanatory statement prior to the consideration of any particular matter in the report of the executive or section 79- committee or the executive mayor or during the discussion of such report in reply to a specific question.

Relevance

37(1) A councillor or traditional leader who speaks must confine his or her speech strictly to the matter under discussion.

- (2) No discussion may take place-

(a) which will anticipate a matter on the agenda unless the chairperson has granted leave to discuss two or more items at the same time or the municipal manager indicated in the agenda that two or more items should be considered together or (b) on any motion or proposal that had been rejected in terms of rule 19. Rule 37(A)

Interpretation of rules

- (1) The ruling of the Speaker or the chairperson in the event of a meeting other than a council meeting, with regard to the application and interpretation of the rules as well as other procedural matters not dealt with in the rules shall be final and binding: Provided that the Speaker / chairperson may be required to provide reasons for a ruling.
- (2) Any ruling made by the Speaker must be made having due regard to the provisions of the Constitution, national and provincial legislation, municipal by-laws and policies, the rule of law and the rules of natural justice.
- (3) Any interpretation and ruling made by the Speaker should be registered by the Municipal Manager in such register kept for this purpose by the Municipal Manager and kept for safekeeping similar to the agendas and minutes of all meetings.

Councillor's right to information

38. A councillor has the right to request the municipal manager to supply such information as may be required for the proper performance of his or her duties as a councillor, including the making of a speech at a meeting or hearing. The municipal manager is not obliged to entertain any request for information where-
- (a) the information sought is privileged or confidential as defined in item 10 of the code of conduct;
 - (b) in his or her opinion, the information sought constitute an invasion of another person's privacy;
 - (c) the request is, in his or her opinion, unreasonable given the timeframe allowed for obtaining the information;
 - (d) the information sought is a trade secret or confidential commercial information of a supplier to the municipality or a person seeking to become a supplier to the municipality; or
 - (e) the request will, in his or her opinion, cause an extra-ordinary administrative or financial burden on the municipality.

39. Points of order and personal explanation

- 1) Any member, regardless of whether he/she addressed the Council on the matter under debate or not, may:
 - raise a point of order
 - raise a point of personal explanation at the end of the debate
- 2) Any point of order or personal explanation will not constitute a speech and will therefore not affect the right of any member to speak on a particular item, provided that the member will not be allowed to spend more than 2 (two) minutes on the point of order or personal explanation.
- 3) Any member contemplated in (1) above shall be entitled to be heard and the councillor speaking at the time shall remain silent until a ruling has been made by the Speaker or chairperson.
- 4) The ruling of the Speaker or chairperson on a point of order or on the admissibility of a personal explanation shall be final and shall not be open to discussion.
- 5) Any member will only be allowed to raise one point of order and one point of personal explanation during the council meeting. Only one point of order on the same matter will be allowed.
- 6) Any member persisting in [appoint] a point of order or personal explanation after a ruling has been made by the Speaker will be subject to the provision of Rule 31(A) above.

Right of the municipal manager to have advice recorded in the minutes

- 40 (1) The chairperson at a meeting must give the municipal manager an opportunity to address that meeting on any matter before the meeting in order to advise the meeting as to the eligibility of any proposal or motion before the meeting.
- (2) The municipal manager has the right to have his or her advice regarding any motion or proposal which may – (a) cause unauthorised expenditure; or (b) be beyond the authority of the municipality recorded in the minutes of the meeting where the advice was given.

Part 7: Adjournment and continuation of meetings

Adjournment of meeting in the absence of a quorum

- 41(1) If there is not a quorum for the meeting present within 20 minutes after the time stipulated in the notice referred to in rule 10 such meeting is not held but a continuation meeting is held in terms of rule 43.
- (2) If at any time during the course of a council or committee meeting it is suspected that there is not a quorum present-
- (a) the chairperson must discontinue the proceedings immediately; and
 - (b) cause the councillors present to be counted

In the event of no quorum for a meeting, the meeting must be suspended for no more than 20 minutes, and if at the end of the said period there is still no quorum, the Speaker or chairperson may suspend the meeting he or she deems fit and thereafter adjourn the meeting to another date, time and/or venue.

- (3) If the shortfall of councillors contemplated in sub-rule (2) is owing to the withdrawal of one or more councillors in compliance with the code of conduct, the chairperson must arrange that such matter be dealt with at the first meeting next ensuing and the unfinished business is dealt with.
- (4) If a sufficient number of councillors is present after the bell had been rung, the meeting continues, provided that the councillor who was speaking when the proceedings were discontinued, is, in his or her own discretion, entitled to start his or her speech from afresh.
- (5) Any business except a matter referred to in sub-rule (3) which had not been dealt with at a meeting that had been adjourned, must be considered at a continuation meeting contemplated in rule 43, provided that any unfinished business arising from a special meeting, must be considered at the first ordinary meeting next ensuing unless the date of such ordinary meeting is later than the date contemplated in rule 43.
- (6) If a councillor or group of councillors leave any meeting in protest, and the remainder of the councillors constitute a quorum, the business of the meeting shall be proceeded with.

Adjournment of a meeting before it completed its business

- 42(1) A councillor may at any time during a meeting propose that the meeting be adjourned and must state the reasons for the proposal, provided that no councillor may more than twice during the same meeting propose that it be adjourned.
- (2) A proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) must be seconded by at least three councillors present at the meeting, provided that a councillor may not second a proposal to adjourn more than twice during the same meeting. Such a proposal lapses if it is not properly seconded.
- (3) A proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) is carried if a majority of the members present at a meeting vote in favour thereof.
- (4) Whenever a meeting adjourns in terms of sub-rule (1) before it had finished the business stated in the agenda for that meeting, the meeting must resume as a continuation meeting in terms of rule 43 to deal with any unfinished business unless the date of the first ordinary meeting next ensuing is earlier than the date referred to in rule 43 in which case the unfinished business of an adjourned meeting is dealt with at that ordinary meeting.

Continuation of an adjourned meeting

- 43(1) A continuation meeting is held, subject to the provisions of sections 25(1) and 25(2) of the Finance Management Act, at the same time as the meeting that had been adjourned in terms of rule 41 or 42 on date within 30 days but not within two days after the adjournment unless otherwise directed by the chairperson of the meeting, determined by – (a) the speaker, in the case of a council meeting; (b) the executive mayor, in the case of a meeting of the mayoral committee; or (c) the chairperson of the committee, in the case of any other committee.
- (3) The agenda for a continuation meeting is the agenda for the meeting that had been adjourned.

Temporary adjournment of a meeting

- 44(1) A councillor may at any time during a meeting propose that the meeting be adjourned for a period proposed by him or her and must state the reasons for the proposal, provided that not more than two such proposals may be made during the same meeting and that no such adjournment may exceed thirty minutes.
- (2) Despite the provisions of sub-rule (1) the chairperson at a meeting may, if she or he is of the opinion that a third temporary adjournment of a meeting may facilitate the discussion and resolution of a matter, allow a third adjournment in terms of sub-rule (1).
- (3) A proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) must be seconded by at least three councillors present at the meeting, provided that a councillor may not second a proposal to adjourn more than twice during the same meeting. Such a proposal lapses if it is not properly seconded.
- (4) A proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) is carried if a majority of the members present at a meeting vote in favour thereof.
- (5) The meeting resumes after the expiry of the period referred to in sub-rule (1) and deals with any unfinished business contained in its agenda.

Part 8: Agendas and minutes of meetings

Only matters included in the agenda are dealt with

- 45(1) Subject to the provisions of sub-rules (2) and (5) only matters included in an agenda for a meeting may be dealt with.

- (2) A proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) need not be seconded and no debate about the proposal is allowed.
- (3) A proposal referred to in sub-rule (2) is carried if the councillors present at a meeting unanimously adopt it.
- (4) An urgent report received from the executive or a section 79-committee if the municipality has a plenary executive system or the executive mayor, as the case may be, may be tabled and considered during a council meeting with the express prior permission of the speaker. An urgent report received from a section 79-committee may be tabled and considered at an executive or mayoral committee meeting with the express prior approval of the mayor or the executive mayor, as the case may be.

Tabling of documents and consideration of tabled documents

- 45A(1) Whenever the chairperson during a council meeting puts the matter referred to in sub-rule 78(de) to the order, the executive mayor or a member of the mayoral committee designated by the executive mayor, or the municipal manager, as the case may be, shall – (a) rise;
- (b) briefly state the nature of each document she or he shall table; and (c) hand the documents referred to in that item up to the chairperson.
- (2) No debate regarding the tabling of a document shall be allowed at the time of its tabling, unless that document has been included in the agenda for the meeting concerned and it was distributed to the councillors who must attend the meeting together with the notice of the meeting.
 - (3) The chairperson at a meeting where a document is tabled that has not been included in the agenda for that meeting, shall ensure that the municipal manager take the necessary steps to ensure that such document shall be submitted –
 - (a) to the executive mayor or relevant committee, if any; or
 - (b) at the first ordinary council meeting next ensuing, as the case may be, provided that the speaker –
 - (i) may at any time call a special meeting to deal with such a tabled document; or
 - (ii) shall call a special meeting of the council if the subject matter dealt with in such a document requires the council to deal with the matter before a specified date and no ordinary council meeting is scheduled to take place before or on that date.

Minutes of meetings and summary of evidence at hearings

- 46(1) The municipal manager must keep, or cause to be kept, minutes of the proceedings of every public meeting of voters, public hearing, council and committee meeting.
- (2) The minutes of a meeting must reflect-
 - (a) the names of the councillors and traditional leaders attending;
 - (b) the names of the councillors and traditional leaders absent with or without leave;
 - (c) the periods of absence during a meeting of a councillor or traditional leader;
 - (d) the names of the councillors voting respectively for and against any matter for the decision of which a division is called;
 - (e) the name of any councillor who demanded that his or her vote against any particular decision be recorded in the minutes; (f) any adjournment of the meeting;
 - (g) any declaration of a personal or pecuniary interest by a councillor or a traditional leader;
 - (h) any advice of the municipal manager regarding possible unauthorised expenditure or resolutions beyond the authority of the municipality; and
 - (i) the resolutions taken.
 - (3) The minutes of a meeting must be delivered to the councillors with the notice of the ensuing meeting or prior to delivering such a notice.
 - (4) Minutes delivered in terms of sub-rule (3) are deemed read with a view to their approval.
 - (5) No proposal regarding minutes, except a proposal relating to the accuracy thereof may be allowed.
 - (6) The minutes of a meeting must, if in order, be approved at the next ordinary meeting of the council or committee, as the case may be, provided that the council must approve the minutes of a public meeting of voters.
 - (7) The chairperson of the meeting must sign the minutes upon approval. If the minutes are written on loose sheets, each sheet must be signed.
 - (8) The minutes relating to any matter, which had been discussed and resolved in closed session, must be clearly separated from the minutes of that part of the meeting that had been conducted in public.
 - (9) Any councillor or other person speaking at a meeting may request that his or her speech not be recorded. Upon receipt of such a request the municipal manager must cease such a recording.
 - (10) The municipal manager must make, or cause to be made, a summary of the proceedings and evidence given at a public hearing and submit it at the first ordinary meeting of the council or the executive committee after the hearing or to the executive mayor, as the case may be.

Rule 47

When councillors may not attend and participate in the proceedings of the council, mayoral committee / executive committee, portfolio committee or subcommittee

- (1) A councillor shall-
 - a) Disclose to the council, or to any committee of which that councillor is a member, any direct personal or private business interest that the councillor, or the spouse, partner or business associate of that councillor may have in any matter before the council or the committee;
 - b) Withdraw from the proceedings of the council or committee meeting when the matter is being considered by the council or committee, unless the council or the committee decides by resolution, that the councillor's direct or indirect interest in the matter is trivial or irrelevant. A councillor who has so disclosed his/her interest may, with the approval of majority of the members of the council or its committee, address the council or committee on the matter prior to the deliberation and vote on the matter taking place, subject always to the ruling of the Speaker or chairperson on the time to be allowed for such an address.
 - c) A councillor who, or whose spouse, partner or business associate or close family member, acquires or stands to acquire any direct benefit from a contract concluded with the municipality, must disclose full particulars of the benefit of which the councillor is aware at the first meeting of the council or committee of the council at which it is possible for the councillor to make a disclosure.
 - d) This provision does not apply to an interest or benefit which a councillor, or a spouse, partner or business associate or close family members, has or acquired in common with other residents and ratepayers of the municipality.

Part 9: Deputation's, petitions, objections and representations

Deputation's

- 48(1) Anybody who wishes to obtain an interview with the council or a committee of the council, must lodge a written application with the municipal manager. Such an application must state the representations the applicant wishes to make.
- (2) The municipal manager must submit the application to the-
 - a) speaker in the case of an application for an interview with the council;
 - b) mayor, in the case of an application for an interview with the executive committee;
 - c) executive mayor in the case of an application for an interview with the mayoral committee; or
 - d) chairperson of the relevant committee in any other case who may grant or refuse the interview or request additional information.
- (3) Whenever the speaker, mayor, executive mayor or chairperson of a committee-
 - a) grants an interview, she or he must determine the date, time and venue of the interview and the size of the deputation that may attend the interview; or
 - b) refuses an application, he or she must supply reasons for the refusal and inform the municipal manager of his or her decision.
- (4) The municipal manager must inform the applicant of a decision in terms of sub-rule (3).
- (5) If the subject matter of an application in terms of sub-rule (1) falls within the terms of reference of a committee the speaker may direct that the chairperson of the relevant committee consider the application.
- (6) If a committee conducts an interview and that committee does not have the power to dispose of the matter, the committee must submit its report and recommendations to the council or, in the case of a section 79- committee, to the executive committee or executive mayor, as the case may be.
- (7) During an interview only one member of the deputation may address the meeting except when a councillor asks a question whereupon any member of the deputation may respond.
- (8) Unless the council or a committee conducts an interview in closed session, the members of a deputation may remain in the meeting whilst the council or committee considers the matter after the interview had been completed.

Attendance of council meeting by the Auditor-General

- 49(1) If the financial statements and audit report is presented to the speaker or executive mayor in the circumstances contemplated in section 127(4) of the Finance Management Act, the speaker or the executive mayor/mayor, as the case may be, shall present it to the relevant functionaries for comments and table it in the council at the first ordinary meeting of the council next ensuing.
- (2) Whenever the audit report is included in the agenda for a council meeting, whether as part of the municipality's annual report or not, the municipal manager must in writing invite the Auditor-General, the provincial treasury and the department responsible for local government to that meeting.

- (3) Despite any provisions in these rules and orders to the contrary, the speaker may change the order of business at a meeting referred to in subrule (1) to allow the Auditor-General to address the council and councillors to ask questions with regard to the audit report and audit findings.

Petitions

- 50(1) A councillor or traditional leader must submit a petition received by him or her to the speaker.
- (2) The municipal manager must inform the speaker of any petition he or she receives.
- (3) Any petition in terms of sub-rules (1) or (2) and any petition received by the speaker, must be referred to the relevant committee or the executive mayor, as the case may be, who may dispose of the matter.
- (4) If the committee or the executive mayor to whom a petition had been referred does not have the power to dispose of the matter, the committee or the executive mayor, as the case may be, must submit its report and recommendations to the council, provided that in the case of a section 79-committee where the municipality has a collective or mayoral executive system, such report and recommendations must be submitted to the executive committee or the executive mayor, as the case may be.

Objections and representations

- 51(1) Whenever the municipality invites public comment, representations or objections with regard to any proposed resolution before the council or a resolution the council had taken, the municipal manager must designate a person who will be responsible for the receipt of such comment, representations or objections.
- (2) The person designated in terms of sub-rule (1) must within seven days after the closing date for comments, representations or objections, make a summary of the comments, representations and comments that were received (if any) and submit it to the relevant departmental head.
- (3) The departmental head must consider the summary and submit it, together with his or her report and recommendations to the municipal manager who must refer it, with his or her comments, to the council or the executive mayor or the relevant committee, as the case may be.
- (4) The executive mayor or committee, as the case may be, must consider the summary and report and recommendations of the departmental head and the comments of the municipal manager and submit the matter to the council together with their recommendations.

Part 10: Questions

Questions of which notice had been given

- 52(1) A councillor or traditional leader may at any time submit a written question he or she intends to ask during a council meeting or a meeting of a committee of which he or she is a member to the municipal manager, provided that such question must be submitted to the municipal manager at least ten work days before the meeting where the question will be asked. A councillor or traditional leader may request the municipal manager, to assist him or her to formulate the question.
- (2) The municipal manager must immediately upon receipt of a question in terms of sub-rule (1), provide a copy thereof to the relevant departmental head and instruct him or her to prepare a reply to the question. The municipal manager may direct a departmental head to which he or she has sent the question to consult with any other departmental head before he or she prepares the answer.
- (3) Provided the question had been received at least ten workdays before the scheduled date of the meeting where the question would be asked, the municipal manager must ensure that the question and the answer thereto is included in the agenda for the first ordinary meeting of the council or committee next ensuing where the question will be asked.

Questions during meetings

- 53(1) A councillor or traditional leader may at a meeting of the council or a committee of which he or she is a member, ask a question- (a) regarding a matter arising from or pertaining to an item contained in the agenda; or
- (2) The chairperson of the meeting may allow the question if, in his or her opinion, it affects the interests of the residents within the municipal area and may respond to it or direct another councillor to respond to it.
- (3) No discussion of the question or the answer thereto is allowed.
- (4) If the answer to the question is unclear to the councillor or traditional leader who asked it, he or she may ask for, and is entitled to, an explanation of the answer.
- (5) If the question is answered, the councillor or traditional leader who asked the question may request, and is entitled, to a written reply within fourteen days from the date of the meeting. Such a written reply must be included in the minutes of the meeting where the question was asked.

- (6) The chairperson of the meeting where the question is asked may, with the concurrence of the councillor or traditional leader who asked the question, reply at the first ordinary meeting of the council or the committee next ensuing, as the case may be.
- (7) A question may only be asked during a meeting to solicit factual information and may not deal with matters of policy except the implementation of policy, nor seek to solicit an opinion or include or amount to a statement of fact.

Part 11: Motions

Motion must be in written form

- 54(1) A councillor or traditional leader may put a matter on the agenda of a committee of which he or she is a member or of the council by submitting a written motion to the municipal manager, provided that a councillor or traditional leader may orally request the municipal manager to include a motion in the agenda for the first ordinary meeting of such committee or the council next ensuing.
- (2) When the municipal manager receives an oral request from a councillor or traditional leader in terms of sub rule (1), he or she must reduce the request to writing, or cause it to be reduced to writing and include it in the relevant agenda.

Submission and limitation of motions

- 55(1) With due regard for the provisions of sub-rule (4) a motion in terms of rule 54 must be included in the agenda for the first ordinary meeting next ensuing of the council or the committee concerned, provided it had reached the municipal manager at least forty-eight hours before the date referred to in rule 10(1).
- (2) Only one motion of a councillor or traditional leader may be considered at a meeting.
- (3) If the introducer of a motion is absent during the meeting when the motion is put to the order, it is deferred to the ensuing ordinary meeting of the council or committee, as the case may be.
- (4) Any motion which-
 - (a) contemplates the repeal or amendment of a resolution taken during the preceding three months; or
 - (b) has the same scope as a motion that had been rejected during the preceding three months may not be included in the agenda, unless it has been signed by at least three councillors in addition to its introducer.

Withdrawal and amendment of motions

- 56(1) With due regard for any provisions to the contrary in these rules and orders, the introducer of a motion may, at any time before the motion is put to the order at a meeting, withdraw it. A motion that has been withdrawn lapses without further discussion.
- (2) The introducer of a motion may, during a meeting where the motion is considered, request permission to amend the motion, which permission must be granted or denied without discussion.

Part 12: Subject matter and consideration of motions and proposals

Right of introducer of motion to speak and reply

- 57. The introducer of a motion in terms of rule 54 has the right, if the motion had not been rejected or withdrawn, to introduce the motion and to reply.

Motion or proposal regarding the budget

- 58(1) The executive mayor or the mayor or the councillor responsible for finance, as the case may be, must introduce the draft budget or a revised draft budget or a draft adjustments budget (in this rule the "draft budget") at a council meeting-
 - (a) which may not be closed for the public and the press and
 - (b) of which at least ninety-six hours' notice had been given, despite the provisions of rule 10(1).
- (2) The councillor who introduces the draft budget must address the following matters when he or she introduces that budget:
 - (a) The expected financial performance of the municipality for the financial year during which the draft budget is tabled and the reasons therefore.
 - (b) An evaluation of the municipality's debt collection, credit control, indigent support and tariff policies, procedures and the implementation thereof.
 - (c) Any proposed strategies, plans and programmes to improve the financial performance of the municipality during the next financial year or the remainder of the current financial year in the case of a revised draft budget or draft adjustments budget.
 - (d) The procedure, with specific reference to community participation and consultation with different constituencies, which had been followed in compiling the draft budget.

- (e) The impact that such participation and consultation and public hearings had on the draft budget.
 - (f) The priority needs in the community that will be addressed in the draft budget and how they were determined and quantified.
 - (g) The factors, expectations and assumptions that influenced the draft budget.
 - (h) Key ratios of expected income from different sources of revenue to overall expected income and main expenditure groups to expected expenditure, differentiating between capital and operating expenditure.
 - (i) Proposals regarding borrowing, if any, and the likely impact of borrowing on rates, taxes, tariffs and charges.
 - (j) The extent to which the draft budget give effect to the municipality's integrated development plan. (k) Proposals regarding increases in rates, taxes, tariffs and charges.
 - (l) Any other relevant matter.
- (3) A proposal that will cause an increase in expected revenue or a decrease in expected expenditure may not be put to the vote until the debate on the draft budget is exhausted. When the debate is exhausted and the councillor introducing the draft budget had replied to any proposals made during the debate, the proposals is put to the vote in the order they were made.
 - (4) A proposal that will cause an increase in expected revenue or a decrease in expected expenditure changes the draft budget when it is carried.
 - (5) A proposal that will cause a decrease in expected revenue does not change the budget until and unless a corresponding saving in expenditure is proposed and carried. If such proposal is not forthcoming, the meeting adjourns in terms of rule 42.
 - (6) A proposal that will cause an increase in expected expenditure does not change the draft budget until and unless an increase in rates, tariffs, charges or taxes that will cover the expected increase in expenditure is proposed and carried. If such proposal is not forthcoming, the meeting adjourns in terms of rule 42.
 - (7) If the amount saved or earned in terms of a proposal referred to in sub-rule (5) or (6) is insufficient to cover the expected shortfall, the draft budget is not amended but it is referred back to the executive mayor or the executive committee or the councillor responsible for finance, as the case may be, and the meeting adjourns in terms of rule 42.
 - (8) At the continuation meeting in terms of rule 43, any proposal contemplated in sub-rule (5) or (6) and the comment of the councillor introducing the draft budget with regard to it is debated.
 - (9) The speaker must put each proposal referred to in sub-rule (7) to the vote when the debate in terms of sub rule (8) is exhausted. Should any such proposal be carried, the draft budget is changed accordingly.
 - (10) If no proposal as referred to in sub-rule (3) is made or immediately after the debate referred to in sub-rule (9) had been exhausted, the speaker must put the amended draft budget to the vote as a whole. If the amended draft budget is adopted, the budget is approved.

Motion or proposal regarding legislation

59. A motion or proposal before the council affecting the repeal, drafting or amendment of legislation must, before the council considers it, be referred to and considered by the executive committee or the executive mayor or the appropriate section 79-committee if the municipality has a plenary executive system, as the case may be, for its report and recommendations.

Eligible proposals

- 60(1) With due regard for the provisions of rule 19(1)(c) to (f), only the following proposals may be made during the discussion of any motion, proposal or matter contained in an agenda, namely- (a) that the motion or proposal be amended;
 - (b) that the matter be referred back to the executive committee, the executive mayor or the relevant committee for further consideration; (c) that consideration of the matter be deferred;
 - (d) that the debate be suspended;
 - (e) that the matter be put to the vote;
 - (f) that the meeting continue to the next matter.
- (2) Any proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) may only be subjected to the vote if it had been properly seconded.

Amendment of the motion or proposal

- 61(1) A proposal that a motion or proposal (hereafter the "original motion") be amended, may only be made by a councillor or traditional leader during his or her speech on the original motion.
- (2) No councillor or traditional leader may make more than one proposal for the amendment of the same original motion.

- (3) A proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) must be relevant to the original motion and the chairperson must clearly repeat it to the meeting before it is put to the vote.
- (4) With due regard for sub-rule (5) more than one amendment of an original motion may be introduced. Every amendment introduced must be put to the vote at the close of the debate.
- (5) If a proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) had been made, no other proposal may be made until its introducer had addressed the meeting. The councillor or traditional leader who made the proposal may address the meeting for five minutes on his or her proposal, but he or she has no right of reply. The seconder may not address the meeting on the proposal.
- (6) The introducer of the original motion may, when a proposal in sub-rule (1) had been made and its introducer had spoken in terms of sub-rule (5), address the meeting on that proposal without diminishing from his or her right to reply should that proposal be rejected. If a proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) is rejected, a vote must be taken on the original motion without any further discussion.
- (7) If more than one amendment on an original motion had been introduced, they must be put to the vote in the order they were made. If any amendment is carried, the amended motion or proposal takes the place of the original motion and becomes the motion or proposal in respect of which any further proposed amendments must be put to the vote.

Referring the matter back

- 62(1) A proposal that a motion or proposal (hereafter the “original motion”) be referred back, may only be made by a councillor or traditional leader during his or her speech on the original motion.
- (2) A proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) may only be made during a council meeting in the case of a recommendation by the executive committee, the executive mayor or a section 79-committee if the municipality has a plenary executive system, as the case may be. A proposal in terms of subrule (1) may only be made during an executive or mayoral committee meeting in the case of a recommendation of a section 79-committee.
- (3) If a proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) had been made, no other proposal may be made until its introducer had addressed the meeting. The councillor or traditional leader who made the proposal may address the meeting for five minutes on his or her proposal, but he or she has no right of reply. The seconder may not address the meeting on the proposal.
- (4) The introducer of the original motion may, when a proposal in sub-rule (1) had been made and after its introducer had spoken in terms of subrule (3), address the meeting on that proposal without diminishing from his or her right to reply should that proposal be rejected. If a proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) is rejected, a vote must be taken on the original motion without any further discussion.
- (5) A proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) may not be put to the vote until the mayor or the executive mayor or the chairperson of the relevant committee, as the case may be, had addressed the meeting. If such proposal is carried, the debate on the recommendation must end and the meeting proceeds to the next matter.

Deferring consideration of the matter

- 63(1) A councillor or traditional leader who did not participate in the debate on a motion or proposal (hereafter the “original motion”) may at the end of a speech about the original motion propose that the matter be deferred.
- (2) The councillor or traditional leader who made the proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) may address the meeting for five minutes on his or her proposal, but he or she has no right of reply. The seconder may not address the meeting on the proposal
- (3) A proposal similar to the proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) may not be made within half an hour after the first proposal was defeated in respect of the same original motion.
- (4) The introducer of the original motion may, when a proposal in sub-rule (1) had been made and its introducer had spoken in terms of sub-rule (2), address the meeting on that proposal without diminishing from his or her right to reply should that proposal be rejected. If a proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) is rejected, a vote must be taken on the original motion without any further discussion.
- (5) If the proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) concerns a recommendation of the executive committee, the executive mayor or a section 79-committee if the municipality has a plenary executive system, as the case may be, the matter must, if that proposal is carried, be included in the next report of the executive committee, executive mayor or section 79-committee to the council. If the proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) concerns a recommendation of the a section 79-committee if the municipality has a collective or mayoral executive system, the matter must, if that proposal is carried, be included in the next report of the committee to the executive or mayoral committee. If the proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) concerns any other matter, the matter must be included in the agenda of the first ordinary council meeting next ensuing.

Suspending a debate

- 64(1) A councillor or traditional leader who did not participate in the debate on a motion or proposal (hereafter the “original motion”) may at the end of a speech about the original motion propose that the debate be suspended, provided that no councillor or traditional leader may move or second more than one proposal that a debate be suspended during any meeting.

- (2) The councillor or traditional leader who made the proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) may address the meeting for five minutes on his or her proposal, but he or she has no right of reply. The seconder may not address the meeting on the proposal .
- (3) A proposal similar to the proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) may not be made within half an hour after the first proposal was defeated in respect of the same original motion.
- (4) The introducer of the original motion may, when a proposal in sub-rule (1) had been made and after its introducer had spoken in terms of subrule (2), address the meeting on that proposal without diminishing from his or her right to reply should that proposal be rejected. If a proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) is rejected, a vote must be taken on the original motion without any further discussion.
- (5) A proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) must be rejected if the council or committee, as the case may be, is required by law to pass a resolution on the matter at or before a particular date.
- (6) If a proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) is carried, the meeting must deal with the next item on the agenda. The item, in respect of which the debate had been suspended, must be placed first on the list of motions in the next agenda of the council or committee, as the case may be.
- (7) At the resumption of a suspended debate, the introducer of the suspension must address the meeting first.

Putting the matter to the vote

- 65(1) A councillor or traditional leader who did not participate in the debate on a motion or proposal (hereafter the “original motion”) may at the end of a speech about the original motion propose that the matter be put to the vote.
- (2) The councillor or traditional leader who made the proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) may address the meeting for five minutes on his or her proposal, but he or she has no right of reply. The seconder may not address the meeting on the proposal.
- (3) A proposal similar to the proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) may not be made within half an hour after the first proposal was defeated in respect of the same original motion.
- (4) The introducer of the original motion may, when a proposal in sub-rule (1) had been made and its introducer had spoken in terms of sub-rule (2), address the meeting on that proposal without diminishing from his or her right to reply should that proposal be rejected. If a proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) is rejected, a vote must be taken on the original motion without any further discussion.
- (5) The introducer of the original motion has the right, before the matter is put to the vote, to reply.

Proceeding to the next business

- 66(1) A councillor or traditional leader who did not participate in the debate on a motion or proposal (hereafter the “original motion”) may at the end of a speech about the original motion propose that the meeting proceed to the next business.
- (2) The councillor or traditional leader who made the proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) may address the meeting for five minutes on his or her proposal, but he or she has no right of reply. The seconder may not address the meeting on the proposal.
- (3) A proposal similar to the proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) may not be made within half an hour after the first proposal was defeated in respect of the same original motion.
- (4) The introducer of the original motion may, when a proposal in sub-rule (1) had been made and its introducer had spoken in terms of sub-rule (2), address the meeting on that proposal without diminishing from his or her right to reply should that proposal be rejected. If a proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) is rejected, a vote must be taken on the original motion or proposal without any further discussion.
- (5) A proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) must be rejected if the council or committee, as the case may be, is required by law to pass a resolution on the matter at or before a particular date.
- (6) If the proposal in terms of sub-rule (1) is carried the matter under discussion lapse without further discussion.

Part 13: Applications by councillors and traditional leaders

Applications to obtain a financial interest in council business

- 67(1) A councillor or traditional leader must lodge a written application with the municipal manager to obtain the council's consent in terms of item 6(2) of the code of conduct.
 - (2) The municipal manager must submit an application in terms of sub-rule (1) to the council at the earliest opportunity.
 - (3) A councillor or traditional leader who submitted an application in terms of sub-rule (1) may not be present during the consideration of his or her application.
 - (4) The council may not close its meeting whilst it considers an application in terms of sub-rule (1).
 - (5) The council may grant or refuse an application and may impose conditions when it grants an application.

- (6) Whenever the council refuses an application in terms of sub-rule (1) it must state the reasons for its refusal.

Disclosure of declared interests

- 68(1) The municipal manager must compile a register of the financial interests of councillors and traditional leaders declared in terms of item 7(1) of the code of conduct.
- (2) As soon as the municipal manager has completed the register referred to in sub-rule (1) he or she must submit it to the council.
- (3) The council must on receipt of the register in terms of sub-rule (2) during a closed meeting determine which of the declared financial interests must be made public having regard for the need for confidentiality and the need for public disclosure.
- (4) A councillor or traditional leader who has declared an interest that is recorded in the register may not be present during the consideration of the matter.
- (5) Any interest declared in terms of this rule that had not been made public, is confidential.

Resignation of councillors and vacancies in offices

- 69(1) A councillor may, by written withdrawal within 48 hours after the said meeting signed by him or her and delivered to the municipal manager, resign-
- (a) as councillor; or
- (b) from any office he or she holds.
- (2) A councillor may resign from office at any time during a council or committee meeting by making a declaration to the council or committee in that regard, provided that the she or he must immediately after such a declaration, resign in writing. A declaration in terms of this rule may not be withdrawn.
- (3) If the resignation was that of the speaker, mayor, member of the executive committee or executive mayor, as the case may be, the council must as soon as the resignation of the councillor concerned in terms of sub-rule (2) had been reduced to writing, signed and given to the municipal manager, elect a speaker, executive mayor, member of the executive committee or mayor, as the case may be, despite the provisions of rule 23 or 24, as the case may be.
- (4) A resignation in terms of sub-rule (1) or (3) may not be withdrawn and takes effect upon receipt thereof by the municipal manager. If the executive mayor resigns, the members of the mayoral committee are deemed to have resigned from the same date as the executive mayor.
- (5) The municipal manager must immediately upon receipt of a resignation of a councillor or when a vacancy arises in the council in any other manner report it to the speaker, except when the resignation or vacancy is that of the speaker, and to-
- (a) the mayor, in the case of a resignation of a member of the executive committee;
- (b) the executive mayor, in the case of a resignation of member of the mayoral committee.
- (6) The municipal manager must ensure that any resignation or a report of any vacancy arising in another manner is contained in the agenda for the next ordinary council meeting after the vacancy arose.
- (7) The council must, except in the case of a vacancy arising in the mayoral committee, at the meeting where a vacancy in an office of the council is reported, elect from amongst the councillors a successor for the councillor who left the vacancy. A councillor elected to an office in terms of this sub-rule serves for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor.

Part 14: Full-time councillors

Designation of full-time councillors

70. Before the council considers designating any councillor identified by the MEC as a possible full-time councillor, it must obtain and consider a report from the Municipal Manager, provided that the Municipal Manager must submit such a report at the first meeting of the council after a general election of councillors.

Report of the Municipal Manager with regard to full-time councillors 71(1) A report in terms of rule 70, must reflect on-

- (a) the extent of the powers and functions of the municipality;
- (b) the need to delegate those powers and functions to promote efficiency and effectiveness in their performance to a full-time councillor;
- (c) proposed powers that could be delegated to a full-time councillor and where there may be more than one full-time councillors, the different powers that may be delegated to each of them;
- (d) the reasons not to delegate any such power or function to an employee of the municipality;
- (e) the available financial and administrative resources of the municipality to support the work of a fulltime councillor or councillors, including the availability or cost of establishing and maintaining suitable office facilities, office equipment and secretarial assistance;

- (f) the need for the economical, efficient and effective use of resources;
 - (g) the burden the workload of a full-time councillor may put on the incumbent;
 - (h) the need for coordination of decision-making;
 - (i) the need for the regular availability of a councillor to interview the public and visitors to the municipality;
 - (j) the need for close political supervision of, and accountability for, the administration;
 - (k) the likely improvement or deterioration of the relationship between the council and the administration;
 - (l) the need to establish and maintain sound relationships between office-bearers in the different spheres of government;
 - (m) the likely effect delegated powers may have on the enthusiasm and interest of councillors who are not full-time councillors;
 - (n) the functions a full-time councillor must perform as a duty of office;
 - (o) the likely improvement or deterioration in the quality and speed of decision-making if an office is not a full-time office; and (p) any other relevant matter.
- (2) The report must contain recommendations with regard to-
- (a) the working hours of a full-time councillor as contemplated in rule 72(1);
 - (b) arrangements with regard to the provision of office facilities and equipment and secretarial support to the full-time councillor and a proposed budget for such facilities and services where they are inadequate;
 - (c) the powers that may be delegated to the full-time councillor and where there may be more than one full-time councillor, the different powers that may be delegated to each of them;
 - (d) the format, frequency and framework for reports on the activities of the full-time councillor and the exercise of his or her delegated powers;
 - (e) the specification and clarification of the role and responsibility of the full-time councillor or councillors and the municipal manager and departmental heads of the municipality, with due regard for the statutory duties and responsibilities of the municipal manager; and (f) any other relevant matter.
- (3) The designation of a councillor as a full-time councillor does not establish an employment relationship between the municipality and the councillor concerned.

Applications by full-time councillors to undertake other paid work

- 72(1) The council must, when it designates a councillor as a full-time councillor, determine the working hours for the office held by that councillor.
- (2) A councillor who was designated as a full-time councillor may apply for permission of the council to undertake other paid work (in this rule "private work").
- (3) An application for private work must be lodged in writing with the municipal manager and must state the following:
- (a) the nature of the private work the applicant wishes to undertake;
 - (b) an estimation of the demands such work will make on the time and availability of the applicant; and (c) where such work will be performed.
- (4) The council may grant or refuse an application for private work, provided that-
- (a) permission to perform private work may not be unreasonably refused; and
 - (b) when the council refuses an application it must state the reasons for its refusal.
- (5) The meeting where an application for private work is considered may not be closed.
- (6) The applicant may not be present at a meeting during the discussion of the application, provided that the speaker may request the applicant to supply such information as the council may request during that meeting. Whenever such a request is made to the applicant, the applicant may supply the requested information orally during the meeting.
- (7) The council may, before it considers an application for private work, request that additional information with regard to the intended work as may be necessary for the proper consideration of the application be submitted in writing.
- (8) The granting of permission to undertake private work is valid for only twelve months after which the councillor concerned must submit a new application and is subject to the following conditions:
- (a) private work may only be undertaken outside the working hours contemplated in sub-rule (1);
 - (b) private work may not negatively influence the applicant's performance in office or infringe on his or her official functions and duties;
 - (c) no appointments or other arrangements in connection with private work may be made or conducted during the working hours contemplated in sub-rule (1);
 - (d) the applicant may not use the council's equipment, employees, facilities or material for his or her private work;
 - (e) the council's postal address, telephone and fax numbers and electronic mail address may not be used in connection with private work;
 - (f) private work may not cause the applicant to breach the provisions of the code of conduct; (g) the councillor may not use his or her position with the council to recruit private work; and (h) any other condition as the council may determine.

- (9) Any permission in terms of this rule does not exempt a councillor from complying with the code of conduct neither is such permission a defence against any allegation of a breach of the code.
- (10) An application for private work must be refused if, in the opinion of the council, there may exist, or there is likely to arise, a conflict of interest between the councillor's duties as a councillor and those of his or her private work.
- (11) The council may, by notice to the councillor concerned, withdraw its permission to perform private work if there was a material breach of the conditions stipulated in sub-rule (7) or a conflict of interest arise as contemplated in sub-rule (10). Such a notice must contain the reasons for the withdrawal and must site the breaches of the conditions that occurred.
- (12) Before the council issues a notice in terms of sub-rule (11) it must allow the councillor concerned an opportunity to state his or her case.
- (13) Any refusal of an application or a withdrawal of permission already granted is final and binding on the councillor concerned.
- (14) An application that had been refused may only be reconsidered after expiry of a period of six months from the date of the resolution refusing the application, provided the councillor concerned submits a new application. A new application for private work may not be considered within six months after permission to perform private work had been withdrawn in terms of sub-rule (11).

Leave of full-time councillors

73(1) A full-time councillor is entitled to-

- (a) 21 work days holiday leave with full remuneration after every completed year he or she occupied a full-time office of which 15 consecutive days must be taken within six months after the end of each such year;
 - (b) 10 work days sick leave with full remuneration during every completed year he or she occupied a full-time office, provided that the council may grant more sick leave to a councillor; and
 - (c) such other leave with or without remuneration as the council may decide.
- (2) A councillor may not encash holiday leave to his or her credit.
 - (3) A full-time councillor must apply for leave of absence for any period that she or he would not be or had not been available in the municipality during the working hours referred to in rule 71(2)(a).
 - (4) An application for leave of absence in terms of sub-rule (1) must be in writing and must be submitted to the municipal manager.
 - (5) The municipal manager must submit an application in terms of sub-rule (4) to the council at the first opportunity.
 - (6) The council must approve the application, if it is an application for leave in terms of sub-rule (1). If the council approves an application for leave of the speaker or the mayor if there is not a deputy mayor, the council must elect an acting speaker or mayor for the period of the absence of the speaker or mayor, as the case may be.
 - (7) Leave to the credit of a councillor when he or she vacates office may not be paid out.

CHAPTER 3

LANGUAGE POLICY OF THE MUNICIPALITY

Determination of language policy

74. The council must at its first meeting after a general election for councillors review the language policy of the municipality in terms of rule 77 and, where such policy does not exist, instruct the municipal manager to develop a draft policy and submit it to the council.

Differentiation between languages for different purposes

75. The council may determine that one or more languages be used- (a) for the purposes of local government in the municipality;
- (b) for internal written communications relating to the operations of the municipality;
- (c) for the preparation of agendas for, and minutes of, meetings;
- (d) during debates in council and committee meetings;
- (e) during public meetings of voters, constituency meetings and public hearings;
- (f) for written communication with persons communicating with the municipality, including the language or languages used for billing the municipality's debtors;
- (g) for public announcements and courtesy and official notices of the municipality;
- (h) for the promulgation of its bylaws;
- (i) for the compilation of the municipal code in terms of section 19 of the Systems Act; and (j) on forms used or issued by the municipality.

Factors to be taken into account

76. When the council determines a language policy it must take the following factors into account:

- (a) The need to take practical and positive steps to elevate the status and advance the use of indigenous languages that are official languages in terms of section 6(1) of the Constitution.
- (b) Language usage and preferences of the residents within the municipal area.
- (c) The practicability and expense of choosing any particular language or languages.
- (d) The right of an employee accused of misconduct to state his or her case during a disciplinary enquiry in a language of his or her choice and to have the proceedings at such enquiry translated to such language.
- (e) The dominant languages used by newspapers circulating in the area.
- (f) The right of everyone to use the language of their choice. (g) The economical, efficient and effective use of resources.

Review of language policy

77(1) The council may at any time review and amend its language policy, having due regard for the factors referred to in rule 76.

- (2) The council must review its language policy upon receipt of a written request demanding such a review signed by at least one-third of the councillors.
- (3) A request in terms of sub-rule (2) must state the reasons for the demand and must contain proposals for any amendment, taking into account the factors referred to in rule 76.
- (4) A request in terms of sub-rule (2) must be submitted to the municipal manager.
- (5) The municipal manager must submit a copy of the request to the speaker and must ensure that the request is contained in the agenda for the first ordinary council meeting next ensuing.
- (6) The speaker must submit a written report and recommendations about the request to the municipal manager, who must include it in the agenda for the meeting referred to in sub-rule (5).

CHAPTER 5

VOTING AND DECISION-MAKING

Voting at public meetings of voters and constituency meetings

- 81(1) Questions submitted and proposals made at a public meeting of voters or a constituency meeting is decided by show of hands of the voters present at that meeting.
- (2) The chairperson of the meeting may request the municipal manager to take all reasonable steps to ensure that only voters vote at such a meeting.
- (3) An entry of the declaration of the result of a vote in the minutes of a meeting is conclusive evidence of the result.

Decision only taken in certain circumstances

- 82(1) No decision may be taken unless the council or a committee has sufficient information before it to take an informed decision. Such information must preferably be contained in a written report.
- (2) Before the council takes a decision on a matter directly affecting the area of a traditional authority, it must, by written notice, invite the traditional leader of the authority to make written submissions to the council with regard to the matter.
- (3) A traditional leader is deemed not to have any views on the matter if she or he does not respond within 21 days of the invitation in terms of sub-rule (2).
- (4) The fact that a traditional leader did not respond to an invitation in terms of sub-rule (2) does not in any way limit her or his right to attend and participate in any council meeting where the matter will be discussed.

Voting at council and committee meetings

- 83(1) Voting in a council or committee meeting is by show of hands, unless a councillor requests a secret ballot on any question. The request for secret ballot must be supported by at least 50.1 members of the councillors. When such a request is received the provisions of rule 85 applies.

- (2) After the chairperson has declared the result of a vote a councillor may demand-
- (a) that his or her vote against the decision be recorded or (b) a division.
- (3) An entry of the declaration of the result of a vote in the minutes of a meeting is conclusive evidence of the result.

When a division is called

- 84(1) When a division is called in terms of rule 83, all entrances to the venue of the meeting must be closed and no councillor may leave or enter the venue after the entrances had been closed until the result of the division was declared.
- (2) Immediately thereafter the chairperson of the meeting must repeat the motion or proposal, put the motion or proposal to the vote and take the vote of each councillor separately.
- (3) The chairperson must declare the result of the vote after all the councillors had been polled.
- (4) When a division is called, every councillor must vote for or against the proposal or motion in respect of which the division had been called.
- (5) A councillor who called for a division may not leave the venue of the meeting until the result of the vote had been declared.
- (6) An entry of the declaration of the result of a vote in the minutes of a meeting is conclusive evidence of the result.

Voting by secret ballot

- 85(1) The municipal manager must ensure that a sufficient supply of ballot papers that substantially comply with the following design, is available at each meeting:

For the proposal
Against the proposal

- (2) Immediately after the request that a secret ballot be held had been seconded, the municipal manager must give to each councillor present a ballot paper.
- (3) Upon receipt of a ballot paper the councillor must indicate his or her vote by clearly marking whether he or she is for or against the proposal concerned whereupon he or she must fold the ballot paper in half and hand it back to the municipal manager.
- (4) When all the councillors present has handed their ballot papers back, the municipal manager must determine the result of the ballot and inform the chairperson thereof.
- (5) The fact that a secret ballot had been held must be recorded in the minutes of that meeting.
- (6) All used ballot papers must be destroyed upon conclusion of the meeting.
- (7) An entry of the declaration of the result of a vote in the minutes of a meeting is conclusive evidence of the result.

Equality of votes

- 86(1) Unless a specific majority had been prescribed in respect of any matter or when a secret ballot is conducted or when expressly stated otherwise in these rules and orders, the chairperson at a meeting may cast a casting vote where there is an equality of votes on any question in addition to his or her deliberative vote.
- (2) Should there be an equality of votes after a division had been called and the chairperson refuses to use his or her casting vote, the matter must be referred back to the executive committee, executive mayor or relevant section 79-committee if the municipality has a plenary executive system, as the case may be, or must be deferred until the next meeting if there is not a committee or an executive mayor.
- (3) Should there be an equality of votes after a secret ballot had been conducted, the matter must be referred back to the executive committee, executive mayor or relevant section 79-committee if the municipality has a plenary executive system, as the case may be, or must be deferred until the next meeting if there is not a committee or an executive mayor.
- (4) In all cases other than those mentioned in sub-rules (2) and (3) where there is an equality of votes and the chairperson refuses to use his or her casting vote, the matter must be referred back to the executive committee, executive mayor or relevant section 79-committee if the municipality has a plenary executive system, as the case may be, or must be deferred until the next meeting if there is not a committee or an executive mayor.

CHAPTER 6

REMOVAL OF OFFICE-BEARERS FROM OFFICE

Removal of speaker

- 87(1) A councillor (hereafter called "the initiator") may by written motion, which must be seconded by one third of councillors, move that the speaker be removed from office. Such a motion must be submitted to the Municipal

Manager and may not be sent by electronic mail, telex or telegram. If such motion is transmitted by facsimile, the original must be delivered to the municipal manager within seven days.

- (2) The motion must contain a brief summary of the reasons for the motion.

 - (h) consideration of the minutes of previous In Committee discussions.
- (3) A councillor may, when an item in the agenda is put to order, other than a matter referred to in 3.2 above, and provided it is not a matter that is required in law to be dealt with in open council, propose with motivation, that the matter be further dealt with In Committee. The ruling of the Speaker in this regard will be final and no further discussion will be allowed.

95(repealed)

96(repealed)

Opening a closed meeting

- 97(1) A councillor may at any time during a meeting that is closed propose that the meeting proceed in public.
- (2) No seconder is required for a proposal in terms of sub-rule (1).
- (3) Despite anything to the contrary in these rules and orders, only the introducer of the motion may speak on the proposal for a period not exceeding five minutes and must during his or her argument state the reasons for the proposal.
- (4) The chairperson at the meeting, if he or she does not reject the proposal, must subject the proposal to the vote immediately after the introducer has spoken.
- (5) If the proposal is carried, the meeting immediately resumes in public.

Rule 98

Information to the press or other media: In-committee discussions

- 1) The Mayor/ Executive Mayor, or in his/her absence the Deputy Mayor / Executive Mayor, the Speaker and the Municipal Manager in their discretion may, on application being made to him/her by any registered newspaper, radio station, television service or internet publisher, supply to such media or its representative, information and reports relating to the work of the municipality.

- 2) In view of the Municipal Manager, the Speaker or the Mayor / Executive Mayor being the authorised channel through which the media may receive information and reports, members of the council are therefore expected to refrain from sending to the media documents or information supplied to them with a view to their consideration by the council or any committee: Provided that this clause shall not be construed as abrogating a councillor's individual constitutional right to make press statements which reflect his/her own personal or political view and not that of the council, further provided however, that no discussion that took place in-committee may be conveyed to the public or the press except by the Mayor / Executive Mayor, Speaker or Municipal Manager.
- 3) Chairpersons of committees must liaise with the Executive Mayor / Mayor, Speaker and Municipal Manager for the publication of any information relating to the committee and the Municipal Manager shall arrange, if approved, the publication of the relevant information.

CHAPTER 8

APPLICATION OF THE CODE OF CONDUCT

Investigating suspected breaches of the code

- 99(1) Whenever a written or when oral allegation on breach of the code of conduct is made to the municipal manager or he or she has reason to believe that a councillor or traditional leader has contravened or failed to comply with any provision of the code of conduct (in this rule referred to as the "code"), he or she must report it in writing to the speaker. If such an allegation is made to a departmental head, she or he must report it to the municipal manager.
 - (2) Upon receipt of a report in terms of sub-rule (1) and when the speaker has reason to believe that a provision of the code had been breached, he or she must-
 - (a) investigate the facts and circumstances of the case; and
 - (b) give the councillor or traditional leader concerned a reasonable period within which to respond in writing to the alleged breach.
 - (3) When performing an investigation in terms of sub-rule (2) the speaker may examine any official records and documents of the municipality and interview any person.
 - (4) As soon as the speaker has completed the investigation he or she must submit-
 - (a) a written report, which must include his or her finding and recommendation; and
 - (b) the response of the councillor or traditional leader written response, if any, to the municipal manager for inclusion in the agenda of the first ordinary council meeting next ensuing. The municipal manager must immediately deliver a copy of the report to the councillor or traditional leader concerned and the relevant traditional authority, in appropriate cases.
 - (5) If the councillor or traditional leader concerned fails to respond to the allegation within fourteen days after being invited by the speaker to do so, the speaker may submit his or her report without such comment.
 - (6) The speaker makes a finding on a preponderance of probabilities.
 - (7) If the speaker found that the councillor or traditional leader concerned breached the code and he or she recommends that-
 - (a) the council must apply to the MEC to suspend the councillor concerned for a period, he or she must make a recommendation as to the period of suspension;
 - (b) a fine should be imposed, he or she must make a recommendation as to the amount of such fine; or
 - (c) a warning should be issued, he or she must make a recommendation as to the period during which the warning should apply.
 - (8) Nobody may victimise or threaten any person who gave evidence in an investigation in terms of this rule.
 - (9) This rule will apply in line with Schedule 7 (16) of the Municipal Structures Amendments Act 3 of 2021

Consideration of the speaker's report by the council

- 100(1) The speaker must vacate the chair during any council meeting when a report in terms of rule 99 is put to order.
 - (2) Whenever the speaker vacates the chair in terms of sub-rule (1) the municipal manager must preside over the debate on the report.
 - (3) The proceedings in terms of sub-rule (2) may not be closed for the public and the media.
 - (4) After the speaker has introduced his or her report, the municipal manager must allow the councillor or traditional leader concerned to reply to the allegations and findings.
 - (5) As soon as the councillor or traditional leader concerned has spoken, the matter is debated in terms of these rules.
 - (6) Despite any provisions to the contrary in these rules and orders, the councillor or traditional leader concerned has a right to-
 - (a) reply to all the allegations made during the debate before the speaker replies;

- (b) examine any documents submitted by the speaker or any other councillor or traditional leader and submit documents in his or her defence; and
- (c) call witnesses and to cross-examine any witness called by the speaker.
- (7) With due regard for the provision of rules 35 and 36 the speaker must, after the debate had been exhausted, reply and propose –
 - (a) that his or her report, findings and recommendation be accepted; or
 - (b) that his or her report and finding and a different recommendation be accepted; or
 - (c) that the council elect a committee to further investigate the matter.
- (8) A proposal in terms of sub-rule (7) need not be seconded.
- (9) After the proposal in terms of sub-rule (7) had been made, the municipal manager must put the proposal to the vote.
- (10) If the proposal in terms of sub-rule (7) is-
 - (a) defeated, the matter is discontinued; or
 - (b) carried, the municipal manager must forthwith implement the resolution.

Implementing the result of the vote

- 101(1) If a proposal in terms of rule 100(7)(a) or (b) is carried and a fine is imposed, the municipal manager must deduct the amount of such fine from the first next payment of the municipality to the councillor concerned unless he or she has paid the fine in cash before such payment is due.
- (2) If a proposal in terms of rule 100(7)(a) or (b) is made and carried that the councillor or traditional leader concerned must be suspended or the councillor must be removed from the council, the municipal manager must forthwith make such an application to the MEC.
- (3) If the MEC on application of the council suspend the councillor or traditional leader concerned, he or she is, despite any rule to the contrary, deemed to be absent with leave from any meeting he or she would have been required to attend had he or she not been suspended.
- (4) Where an allegation against a traditional leader is found to be true, the municipal manager must inform the relevant traditional authority accordingly.

Investigating the matter further

- 102(1) The council must immediately appoint from amongst its members an investigation committee of not less than three and not more than five councillors and appoint the chairperson of the committee if-
 - (a) a proposal in terms of rule 100(7)(c) is carried; or
 - (b) the speaker reported in terms of rule 99(4) that he found the allegation without any grounds and evidence was given during the meeting referred to in rule 100 that the allegation may be true despite the speaker's finding,
 - provided that the speaker may not serve as a member of the committee.
 - (2) An investigation committee must be constituted in such a way that parties and interests reflected in the council are fairly represented in it.
 - (3) The investigation committee must conclude its investigation not later than twenty-one days after its appointment.
 - (4) When performing an investigation in terms of sub-rule (3) the investigation committee may examine any official records and documents of the municipality and interview any person. The investigating committee must consider the minutes of the meeting referred to in rule 100 during its investigation.
 - (5) The municipal manager must make a copy of the minutes of the meeting referred to in rule 100 available to the councillor or traditional leader concerned as soon as possible after the meeting concluded.
 - (6) The councillor or traditional leader concerned is entitled to make written submissions to the investigating committee, but the committee is not obliged to request the councillor's or traditional leader's written comments on the allegations. The investigating committee must take account of the written response of the councillor or traditional leader concerned contemplated in rule 99(2) and any written submission made in terms of this sub rule.
 - (7) The municipal manager must make such reasonable administrative support as the investigating committee may require available to the committee.
 - (8) As soon as the investigating committee has completed the investigation it must submit a written report, including its finding and any submission in terms of sub-rule (6), to the municipal manager for inclusion in the agenda of the first ordinary council meeting next ensuing. The municipal manager must immediately deliver a copy of the report to the councillor or traditional leader concerned and the relevant traditional authority.
 - (9) The investigating committee makes a finding on a preponderance of probabilities.
 - (10) If the investigating committee found that the councillor or traditional leader concerned breached the code it may recommend-
 - (a) that the speaker's finding and recommendation in terms of rule 99(8) be confirmed; or
 - (b) that the speaker's finding be confirmed and make a different recommendation.

- (11) If the investigating committee recommends that-
- (a) the council must apply to the MEC to suspend the councillor concerned for a period, it must make a recommendation as to the period of suspension;
 - (b) a fine should be imposed, it must make a recommendation as to the amount of such fine; or
 - (c) a warning should be issued, it must make a recommendation as to the period during which the warning should apply.
- (12) Nobody may victimise or threaten any person who gave evidence in an investigation in terms of this rule.

Consideration of further report by the council

- 103(1). The provisions of rule 100 apply, with the necessary changes, to the consideration of a report of an investigating committee, provided that any reference in that rule to the speaker must be construed as a reference to the chairperson of the investigating committee.
- (2) The committee dissolves upon conclusion of the debate on its report during the council meeting.

Effect of appeal on a resolution

- 104(1) If the councillor or traditional leader concerned appeals against the finding or the penalty imposed by the council or against both such finding and penalty as described in rule 100 before the municipal manager had deducted the fine, he or she must defer the matter until the result of the appeal is known.
- (2) If the councillor or traditional leader concerned appeals before the municipal manager could submit an application in terms of rule 101(4), the municipal manager must defer the matter until the result of the appeal is known.

Breaches of these rules and orders or legislation relating to privileges

and immunities Rule 105

Sanctions and offences

- (1) Any person who wilfully contravenes any provision of these rules shall be guilty of an offence and shall be subject to the following sanctions imposed by the council:
- a) Having a fine imposed by the council as determined by it from time to time for the categories of offences as approved by it by resolution from time to time;
 - b) Be suspended from the attendance of council or committee meetings as the council may determine for such a period as the council may by resolution determine from time to time for the categories of offences as determined by it.

CHAPTER 9

DISSOLUTION OF THE COUNCIL

Conditions for dissolution

- 106(1) The council may at any time after two years have lapsed since it was elected consider the dissolution of the council.
- (2) The council must consider the dissolution of the council if two years have lapsed after the council had been elected-
- a) upon receipt of a petition proposing the dissolution signed by not less than 1 500 voters; or
 - b) upon receipt of a recommendation proposing the dissolution from the speaker, executive mayor, executive committee or a section 79 committee if the municipality has a plenary executive system;
- or
- c) provided that the attendance register at such meeting shows an attendance of more than 1 500 persons.
 - d) upon receipt of a motion proposing the dissolution from a councillor signed by at least one-third of the councillors in addition to the introducer of the motion; or
 - e) when the MEC has invoked his/her powers in terms of Section 139 of the Constitution and cabinet has approved in terms of Section 139 (2) (a)

Procedure for considering the dissolution of the council

- 107(1) Whenever any of the circumstances referred to in rule 106(2) arise, the speaker must determine the date, time and venue of a special council meeting in terms of rule 4. The date of such a special meeting may not be less than fourteen and not more than twenty-one days from the date the petition was delivered, recommendation was made, resolution was taken, motion was submitted or instruction received referred to in rule 106(2), as the case may be.
- (2) At least seven days' notice of a meeting in terms of sub-rule (1) must be given, despite the provisions of rule 10(1).
 - (3) A meeting in terms of sub-rule (1) may not be closed to the public and the media.
 - (4) Despite any provisions to the contrary in these rules and orders the municipal manager presides over the debate of the petition, recommendation, resolution or motion, as the case may be.
 - (5) With due regard for the provision of rules 35 and 36 the municipal manager must subject the petition, recommendation, resolution or motion, as the case may be, to a secret ballot in terms of rule 85 despite the provisions of rule 83 when the debate is exhausted.

- (6) The proposal is carried if two-thirds of the councillors of the municipality votes in favour of it.
- (7) The council is dissolved and all councillors vacate their seats immediately if the proposal is carried.

CHAPTER 10 COMMITTEES

Part 1: Section 79-committees

Report of the municipal manager before the establishment of a committee

- 108(1) With due regard for the provisions of parts 3 and 4 of this chapter, the council must, before it establishes and elects the members of a section 79 and 80 - committee (in this part "the committee"), consider a report from the municipal manager regarding the proposed committee.
- (2) The municipal manager in preparing a report contemplated in sub-rule (1) must consider the need for the proposed committee, taking into account-
 - (a) the extent of the powers and functions of the municipality;
 - (b) the need to delegate those powers and functions to promote efficiency and effectiveness in their performance;
 - (c) the reasons not to delegate any such power or function to an existing committee (if any) or the executive mayor (if any) or an employee of the municipality;
 - (d) the available financial and administrative resources of the municipality to support the work of the committee, including the preparation of agendas and minutes of the committee;
 - (e) the need for the economical, efficient and effective use of resources;
 - (f) the burden the workload of the proposed committee may put on its members;
 - (g) the need for coordination of decision-making at the level of the council and its structures;
 - (h) possible measures to reduce the cross referral of matters between committees of the council, including the amendment of the terms of reference of one or more other committees; and
 - (i) the likely improvement or deterioration in the quality and speed of decision-making if the committee is established.
 - (3) The report of the municipal manager must contain recommendations with regard to the matters listed in rule 109 and the electoral system contemplated in rule 111, despite any recommendation that he or she may make that the proposed committee not be established.
 - (4) The municipal manager must submit his or her report to the executive committee (if any) or the executive mayor (if any), as the case may be. Where the municipality has plenary executive system the report must be submitted to the council.
 - (5) The executive committee (if any) or the executive mayor (if any), as the case may be, must consider the report and recommendations of the municipal manager and submit it, together with its own comment and recommendations to the council.

Consideration of the municipal manager's report

- 109(1) After the council considered the municipal manager's report and the comment and recommendation of the executive committee (if any) or the executive mayor (if any), as the case may be, and the council decides to establish the committee, the council must- (a) determine the size of the committee;
- (b) determine the terms of reference of the committee;
 - (c) determine the powers it delegates to the committee (if any);
 - (d) determine the system for electing the members of the committee and elect the members of the committee in terms of that system;
 - (e) if the municipality has a plenary executive system appoint from amongst those members the chairperson of the committee; (f) prescribe how often the committee must meet;
 - (g) consider authorising the committee to appoint persons who are not councillors or employees of the municipality as members of the committee; and
 - (h) prescribe how often the committee must submit a report to the council, if the municipality has a plenary executive system, or the executive committee or the executive mayor, as the case may be.
- (2) If the council at any time authorises the committee to appoint persons who are not councillors or employees of the municipality as members of the committee, it must-
- (a) determine the qualifications, experience, specialised knowledge, demonstrated abilities or potential and other attributes such person must have to be appointed to the committee;
 - (b) determine the procedure for selecting and appointing any such person; and
 - (c) determine the remuneration (if any) of any such person for serving in the committee and the conditions of such remuneration, provided that the council may decide that only the travelling cost, at tariffs determined by the council, and reasonable out of pocket expenses of such person in connection with his or her membership of the committee be paid.

Determining the size of the committee

- 110(1) No more than twenty percent of the councillors of the council or ten councillors, whichever is the least, may be elected as members of the committee provided that the committee must have at least three members who are councillors.
- (2) If the council authorises the committee to appoint persons in terms of rule 109(g) as members of the committee, it must determine the upper limit of the number of appointments that may be made, provided that-
- (a) the number of councillors who may serve on the committee is reduced with a corresponding number; and
- (b) the number of councillors serving in a committee always exceeds the number of persons who are not councillors in that committee.
- (3) No reduction of the number of councillors in terms of sub-rule (2) may be done if the committee has only three councillors as members, provided that the number of committee members who are not councillors or employees may not exceed two persons.

Election system and election of members of a committee

- 111(1) The members of the committee who are councillors must be elected according to a system that ensures that the parties and interests reflected in the council are fairly represented in that committee, provided that the Executive Mayor reserves the right in law to appoint members of the Mayoral Committee as he deems fit.
- (2) The speaker, mayor or executive mayor, as the case may be, may be elected as a member of the committee.
- (3) Immediately after the council determined the election system in terms of sub-rule (1) the council must elect the members of the committee.

Term of a committee and filling of vacancies

- 112(1) The members of the committee are elected and appointed, subject to sub-rule (2) for a term ending when the next municipal council is declared elected.
- (2) A member of the committee vacates office during the term of the council if that member-
- (a) resigns as a member of the committee;
- (b) is removed from office as a member of the committee in terms of rule 92; (c) ceases to be a councillor.
- (3) The council must, subject to rule 111(1), at the earliest opportunity after a vacancy occurred, elect and appoint another person to serve as member of the committee for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor.

Quorum and decision-making

- 113(1) A majority of the members of the committee must be present before a decision on any matter may be taken.
- (2) A question before the committee is decided if there is agreement among at least the majority of the members present at a meeting.
- (3) If on any question there is an equality of votes, the chairperson may exercise a casting vote in addition to her or his deliberative vote.

Part 2: Executive committee

Application of this part

114. This part applies only to a municipality that has a collective executive system.

Making the decision to establish an executive committee

- 115(1) The council must, at its first meeting after a general election of councillors, immediately after it elected the speaker, consider whether or not to establish an executive committee.
- (2) The council takes a decision in terms of sub-rule (1) only after it considered a report of the municipal manager in terms of rule 116.

Report of the municipal manager about an executive committee

- 116(1) The municipal manager in preparing a report contemplated in rule 115(2) must consider the need for an executive committee, taking into account-
- (a) the extent of the powers and functions of the municipality;

- (b) the need to delegate those powers and functions to promote efficiency and effectiveness in their performance to an executive committee;
 - (c) the reasons not to delegate any such power or function to an employee of the municipality;
 - (d) the available financial and administrative resources of the municipality to support the work of an executive committee, including the preparation of agendas and minutes of the committee;
 - (e) the need for the economical, efficient and effective use of resources;
 - (f) the burden the workload of an executive committee may put on its members;
 - (g) the need for co-ordination of decision-making;
 - (h) the likely effect delegated powers may have on the enthusiasm and interest of councillors who are not elected to the executive committee; and
 - (i) the likely improvement or deterioration in the quality and speed of decision-making if an executive committee is established.
- (2) The report must contain recommendations with regard to-
- (a) the powers that may be delegated to the executive committee;
 - (b) the format, frequency and framework for reports on the activities of the executive committee and the exercise of its delegated powers; (c) the ceremonial functions that may be vested in the mayor;
 - (d) the electoral system and procedure to be used to obtain the result contemplated in section 43(2) of the Structures Act;
 - (e) the specification and clarification of the role and responsibility of the executive committee and the mayor on the one hand and the municipal manager and departmental heads of the municipality on the other, with due regard to the statutory duties and responsibilities of the municipal manager; and (f) any other relevant matter.

Considering the municipal manager's report

117(1) After the council considered the municipal manager's report and the council decides to establish an executive committee, the council must-

- (a) determine the size of the committee in terms of section 43(1) of the Structures Act;
 - (b) determine the powers it delegates to the committee (if any);
 - (c) elect the members of the committee in terms of an electoral system determined by the council with due regard for the recommendation of the municipal manager;
 - (d) elect from amongst the members elected the mayor in terms of Schedule 3 to the Structures Act;
 - (e) prescribe how often the committee must meet;
 - (f) prescribe the format, frequency and framework for reports on the activities of the executive committee and the exercise of its delegated powers;
 - (g) prescribe the ceremonial functions that may be vested in the mayor; and
 - (h) specify and clarify role and responsibility of the executive committee and the mayor on the one hand and the municipal manager and departmental heads of the municipality on the other, with due regard to the statutory duties and responsibilities of the municipal manager.
- (2) If the council decides, after it considered the municipal manager's report, not to establish an executive committee-
- (a) the matter may not be considered again during the next three months; and
 - (b) the council operates as a municipality with a plenary executive system.

Part 3: Executive mayor

Application of this part

118. This part applies only to a municipality that has a mayoral executive system.

Making the decision to establish the office of executive mayor

119(1) The council must, at its first meeting after a general election of councillors, immediately after it elected the speaker, consider whether or not to elect an executive mayor.

(2) The council takes a decision in terms of sub-rule (1) only after it considered a report of the municipal manager in terms of rule 120.

Report of the municipal manager about an executive mayor

120(1) The Municipal Manager in preparing a report contemplated in rule 119(2) must consider the need for an executive mayor, taking into account-

- (a) the extent of the powers and functions of the municipality;
 - (b) the need to delegate those powers and functions to promote efficiency and effectiveness in their performance to an executive mayor;

- (c) the reasons not to delegate any such power or function to an employee of the municipality;
 - (d) the available financial and administrative resources of the municipality to support the work of an executive mayor, including the preparation of agendas and minutes of the mayoral committee;
 - (e) the availability or provision of office facilities, office equipment and secretarial support for the executive mayor;
 - (f) the need for the economical, efficient and effective use of resources;
 - (g) the burden the workload may put on the executive mayor;
 - (h) the need for coordination of decision-making;
 - (i) the likely effect delegated powers may have on the enthusiasm and interest of councillors who are not appointed to the mayoral committee; and
 - (j) the likely improvement or deterioration in the quality and speed of decision-making if an executive mayor is elected.
- (2) The report must contain recommendations with regard to-
- (a) the powers that may be delegated to the executive mayor;
 - (b) the format, frequency and framework for reports on the activities of the executive mayor and the exercise of his or her delegated powers;
 - (c) the specification and clarification of the role and responsibility of the executive mayor on the one hand and the municipal manager and departmental heads of the municipality on the other, with due regard to the statutory duties and responsibilities of the municipal manager; and
 - (d) any other relevant matter.

Considering the municipal manager's report

- 121(1) After the council considered the municipal manager's report and the council decides to establish an office of the executive mayor, the council must-
- (a) determine the powers it delegates to the executive mayor (if any);
 - (b) elect the executive mayor in terms of Schedule 3 to the Structures Act;
 - (c) prescribe how often the mayoral committee must meet;
 - (d) prescribe the format, frequency and framework for reports on the activities of the executive mayor and the exercise of his or her delegated powers; and
 - (e) specify and clarify the role and responsibility of the executive mayor on the one hand and the municipal manager and departmental heads of the municipality on the other, with due regard to the statutory duties and responsibilities of the municipal manager.
- (2) If the council decides, after it considered the municipal manager's report, not to establish an office of executive mayor-
- (a) the matter may not be considered again during the next three months; and
 - (b) the council operates as a municipality with a plenary executive system.

Establishment of mayoral committee

- 122(1) The executive mayor must establish the mayoral committee with due regard for the following factors-
- (a) the extent of the powers and functions of the municipality;
 - (b) the need to delegate those powers and functions to promote efficiency and effectiveness in their performance;
 - (c) the reasons not to delegate any such power or function to an existing committee (if any) or the executive mayor (if any) or an employee of the municipality;
 - (d) the available financial and administrative resources of the municipality to support the work of the committee, including the preparation of agendas and minutes of the committee;
 - (e) the need for the economical, efficient and effective use of resources;
 - (f) the burden the workload of the proposed committee may put on its members;
 - (g) the need for coordination of decision-making at the level of the council and its structures;
 - (h) possible measures to reduce the cross referral of matters between committees of the council, including the amendment of the terms of reference of one or more other committees; and
 - (i) the likely improvement or deterioration in the quality and speed of decision-making if the committee is established.
- (2) After the executive mayor considered the factors in sub-rule (1) the executive mayor must-
- (a) determine the size of the committee;
 - (b) determine the powers he or she delegates to the members of the committee (if any); and
 - (c) appoint the members of the committee.

- (3) After the executive mayor appointed the members of the mayoral committee he or she must submit at the first ordinary council meeting next ensuing-the names of the committee members.

Term of a committee and filling of vacancies

- 123(1) The members of the mayoral committee are appointed, subject to sub-rule (2) for a term ending when the next municipal council is declared elected.
- (2) A member of the committee vacates office during the term of the council if that member-
- (3) (a) resigns as a member of the committee;
(b) is removed from office as a member of the committee in terms of rule 93; (c) ceases to be a councillor.
- (4) The executive mayor must, unless he or she decides to reduce the size of the mayoral committee, at the earliest opportunity after a vacancy occurred, appoint another person to serve as member of the committee for the unexpired term of his or her predecessor.

Quorum and decision-making

- 124(1) A majority of the members of the mayoral committee must be present before a decision on any matter may be taken.
- (2) A question before the mayoral committee is decided if there is agreement among at least the majority of the members present at a meeting.
- (3) If on any question there is an equality of votes, the executive mayor may exercise a casting vote in addition to her or his deliberative vote.

Part 4: Audit Committee

Establishment of audit committee

- 125(1) The council shall not later than the first ordinary council meeting after –
- (a) a general election of councillors for the municipality; or
- (b) this bylaw has been published in terms of section 13 of the Systems Act; or
- (c) the board of directors of a municipal entity of which it is the parent municipality has been elected as the case may be, determine -
- (i) the size of –
- (aa) the municipality's audit committee; and

CHAPTER 11 REPORTS

Reports of the executive committee/executive mayor/finance committee

- 175(1) The executive committee or the executive mayor or a section 79-committee if the municipality has a plenary executive system, as the case may be, must submit a report on its decisions and recommendations on the matters considered by it, at every ordinary council meeting.
- (2) A section 79-committee in a municipality that has a collective executive system must submit a report on its decisions and recommendations on the matters considered by it at every ordinary meeting of the executive committee after it had a meeting.
 - (3) A section 79-committee in a municipality that has a mayoral executive system, must submit a report on its decisions and recommendations on the matters considered by it as often as it had a meeting to the executive mayor.
 - (4) Unless a matter is submitted to the council or the executive committee or the executive mayor, as the case may be, for information only, the report of a committee on any matter must contain a recommendation.

Delivery of reports of committees

- 176(1) Except a report accepted by the speaker or chairperson in the case of a committee as a matter of urgency, a report of a committee in terms of rule 175 is delivered to the council or the executive committee, as the case may be, together with the agenda for the meeting where it must be considered.

- (2) The municipal manager must deliver a report in terms of rule 175 of a section 79-committee in a mayoral executive system to the executive mayor upon receipt thereof. [An executive mayor is entitled to receive reports from Section 80 committees, and to forward these reports together with a recommendation to the council when the matter cannot be disposed of by the executive mayor in terms of the executive mayor's delegated powers.]

Submission of committee reports

177(1) The report of-

- (a) a section 79-committee in the case of a municipality that has a collective executive system, is submitted for consideration by the executive committee by the chairperson of the committee concerned, or a member of such committee designated by her or him, or the executive mayor, as the case may be, by proposing: "I propose that the report of the committee be considered".
- (2) A proposal in terms of sub-rule (1)- (a) may not be discussed; and (b) is deemed seconded once made.

Considering a committee report

178(1) When a report in terms of rule 175 is considered, the speaker or mayor, as the case may be, must-

- (a) put the matters contained in that report not disposed of by the committee or the executive mayor, as the case may be, in terms of its delegated or statutory powers, one after the other; and
- (b) thereafter put the matters disposed of by the committee or executive mayor, as the case may be, in terms of its delegated or statutory powers, one after the other.
- (2) The speaker or mayor, as the case may be, may alter the sequence of the matters dealt with in a committee report at his or her own discretion.
- (3) The section of a report referred to in sub-rule (1)(b) is considered in terms of rule 188.
- (4) The report and recommendation of a committee or the executive mayor, as the case may be, on a matter is deemed proposed and seconded.
- (5) When a recommendation referred to in sub-rule (4) is adopted, it becomes a council resolution.
- (6) During the consideration of a matter in terms of sub-rule (4)-
- (a) the mayor or chairperson of the committee or a member of the committee designated by him or her or the executive mayor, as the case may be, may speak for 10 minutes on any matter contained in such report despite any other provisions to the contrary herein contained; and (b) a councillor may demand that his or her opposition to a recommendation and resolution be recorded in the minutes.
- (7) The chairperson of the committee concerned or the executive mayor, as the case may be, may at any time during the debate on a matter-
- (a) request that the matter be withdrawn and referred back to the committee or the executive mayor, as the case may be, for further consideration; or
- (b) amend a recommendation contained in such report with the permission of the other members of the committee present in the case of the executive committee.
- (8) Permission in terms of sub-rule (8) must be granted or denied without discussion.
- (9) A matter that is withdrawn in terms of sub-rule (8)(a) lapse without further discussion.
- (10) The chairperson of the committee or the executive mayor, as the case may be, may conclude the debate on the matter, provided that the chairperson of a committee may designate another councillor who is a member of the committee to conclude such debate.

Reports of the audit committee

179(1) The audit committee must submit its report after every committee meeting to the council.

- (2) The provision of rules 175, 176 and 177 apply, with the necessary changes, to the report of the audit committee, provided that if the chairperson of the audit committee is not a councillor, the member of that committee who is a councillor designated by him or her must discharge the duties of the chairperson during the meeting where its report is considered.

Reports on the state of the budget

180(1) The Municipal Manager must not later than the first ordinary council meeting after-

- (a) 30 September;
- (b) 31 December;
- (c) 31 March; or

- (d) 30 June of every year submit at such meeting a report on the state of the budget for that financial year.
- (2) The report in terms of sub-rule (1) must contain the particulars referred to in section 19(4) of the Finance Management Act and must be in the format prescribed under that Act. Despite any prescripts in terms of that Act, the report must contain a written statement of-
- (a) the total amount owed to and received by the municipality in respect of rates, rent, charges for water, electricity, solid waste removal and sanitation, at the end of each month covered by such report with regard to every part of the municipal area as may be determined by the council, identifying the ten biggest debtors;
 - (b) the total amount of grants, fiscal transfers and subsidies, including any ad hoc allocations, received from the national or the provincial government or the district municipality during the period covered by the report and the allocation thereof compared to the amount claimed or allocated, as the case may be;
 - (c) the income owed to and received by the municipality from any other source not mentioned in paragraphs (a) and (b);
 - (d) the number of debtors invoices issued by the municipality and the number actually paid during every month covered by the report;
 - (e) the total amount of income from rates during every month covered by such report expressed as a percentage of the expected income from rates for each such month;
 - (f) the total amount due by the municipality to its creditors during each month covered by the report, including a statement of the ten biggest creditors, the creditors outstanding for more than thirty days and the amount paid to each creditor and the reasons for any difference between the amount owed and the amount paid;
 - (g) the cashbook balance at the end of each month covered by the report and the reason for any trend that may occur during the period;
 - (h) progress made with the implementation of every project or programme indicated in the capital budget and the reasons for underperformance;
 - (i) the balance of every fund created by the council and a statement of payments made from and income accruing to each such fund during the period covered by the report;
 - (j) the balance of every external and internal loan, including any overdraft facility extended by the municipality's bank, raised by the municipality, the remaining term of each such loan and the purpose thereof;
 - (k) every investment made by or on behalf of the council, including the institution where the investment was made, the date when such investment had been made, the term of such investment and the interest rate on such investment; and
 - (l) the staff complement of every department within the administration, including an indication of the number of posts vacant on the permanent and temporary establishment, the period for which they had been vacant, the grading of each such vacancy and a full explanation of the need for each such post.
- (3) A report in terms of sub-rule (1) must be submitted to the executive committee or the executive mayor .
- (4) A committee or executive mayor, as the case may be, must consider the report and submit it, together with its comment and recommendations to the council.

- (2) A report in terms of sub-rule (1) must be submitted-
- (a) by the executive committee or the executive mayor to the council together with its report in terms of rule 175;
 - (b) by the municipal manager to the executive committee or the executive mayor within fourteen days of the end of each month; and
 - (c) by a departmental head to the Municipal Manager within fourteen (14) days of the end of each month.
- (3) A report in terms of-
- (a) sub-rule (2)(b) must be incorporated into the report of the relevant committee or the executive mayor, as the case may be, to the council; and
 - (b) sub-rule (2)(c) must be incorporated into the report of the municipal manager in terms of sub-rule (2)(b).

Review of decisions under delegated powers

- 188(1) The speaker must, after a report in terms of rule 175(1)(a) had been disposed of, put the matters disposed of by the committee or the executive mayor, as the case may be, in terms of its delegated or statutory powers, one after the other.
- (2) The speaker may alter the sequence of the matters dealt with in a report in terms of sub-rule (1) at his or her own discretion.
- (3) During the consideration of a matter in terms of sub-rule (1)-
- (a) the chairperson of the committee or a member of the committee designated by him or her or the executive mayor, as the case may be, may speak for 10 minutes on any matter contained in such report despite any other provisions to the contrary contained in these rules and orders;
 - (b) no proposal other than a proposal that the matter be referred back for consideration by the relevant committee may be made; and
 - (c) a councillor may demand that his or her opposition to a resolution contained in such report be recorded in the minutes.

- (4) The chairperson of the committee concerned or the executive mayor, as the case may be, may at any time during the debate on a matter-
- (a) request that the matter be withdrawn and referred back to the committee or the executive mayor for further consideration; or
 - (b) amend a resolution contained in such report with the permission of the other members of the committee present in appropriate cases.

- (5) Permission in terms of sub-rule (4) must be granted or denied without discussion.
- (6) A matter that is withdrawn in terms of sub-rule (4)(a) lapse without further discussion.
- (7) The chairperson of the committee or the executive mayor, as the case may be, may conclude the debate on the matter, provided that in the case of a committee, the chairperson may designate another councillor who is a member of the committee to conclude such debate.

Review of delegated powers

- 189(1) The Municipal Manager must, not later than the third ordinary council meeting after a general election of councillors, and thereafter as often as the council so requires, submit a report on the delegated powers of the municipality to the council.
- (2) The report in terms of sub-rule (1) must be submitted to the executive committee or the executive mayor or the appropriate section 79 committee if the municipality has a plenary executive system, as the case may be.
 - (3) The committee or the executive mayor, as the case may be, must consider the report and recommendations of the municipal manager. The committee or executive mayor, as the case may be, must submit the report, together with its comments and recommendations to the council at the first ordinary council meeting next ensuing.
